Unit 1: Narrator's Point of View and Evidence of Author's Perspective in Dragonwings

In this unit, students are involved in a study of how an author develops point of view and how an author's perspective, based on his or her culture, is evident in his or her writing. Students will begin reading Laurence Yep's Dragonwings (870L), a high-interest novel about an eight-year old boy from China who joins his father in San Francisco in the early 1900s. As they read the novel, students will also read excerpts of Laurence Yep's biography The Lost Garden in order to determine how his culture and experiences have shaped his perspective, and how his perspective is evident in Dragonwings. Through the close reading of these texts, students will learn multiple strategies for acquiring and using academic vocabulary. At the end of Unit 1, having read half of the novel, students will write a literary analysis explaining how being brought up in a Chinese family in San Francisco affected Laurence Yep's perspective of Chinese immigrants living in San Francisco, supported by details from Dragonwings that show evidence of his perspective.

Guiding Questions and Big Ideas

- How does an author develop the narrator's point of view and perspective?
- How does an author's culture affect his perspective, and how is that perspective communicated through his writing?
- Understanding diverse points of view helps us to live in an increasingly diverse society.

Mid-Unit 1 Assessment

Point of View, Figurative Language, and Passage Connections from Dragonwings

This assessment centers on NYSP12 ELA CCLS RL 6.4, RL 6.5, RL 6.6, L.6.4a, W.6.11, W.6.11a, W.6.11b, and W.6.11c. For this assessment, students read a new excerpt of Dragonwings and use a graphic organizer to analyze how the author develops the narrator's point of view. They also answer selected-response questions about word and phrase meaning, and how a sentence/paragraph fits into the overall structure of the text in the excerpt. In Part 2 of the assessment, students create and annotate a scene from Dragonwings showing the theme "It's hard to fit in when you move to live in another culture."

End of Unit 1 Assessment

Evidence of Author's Perspective in Dragonwings

This assessment centers on NYSP12 ELA CCLS RL.6.4 and RL.6.6a. Students read a passage from Laurence Yep's autobiography The Lost Garden and an excerpt from Dragonwings, and they write an on-demand connection statement explaining how being brought up in a Chinese family in San Francisco affected Laurence Yep's perspective of Chinese immigrants living in San Francisco, supported by details from Dragonwings that show evidence of his perspective. They also analyze connotative language in the excerpt of Dragonwings.

Content Connections

This module is designed to address English Language Arts standards as students read literature and informational text about life in San Francisco's Chinatown in the early 1900s. However, the module intentionally incorporates Social Studies practices and themes to support potential interdisciplinary connections to this compelling content. These intentional connections are described below.

Big ideas and guiding questions are informed by the New York State Common Core K–8 Social Studies Framework:

Unifying Themes (pages 6–7)

- Theme 1: Individual Development and Cultural Identity: The role of social, political, and cultural interactions supports the development of identity. Personal identity is a function of an individual's culture, time, place, geography, interaction with groups, influences from institutions, and lived experiences.
- Theme 2: Development, Movement, and Interaction of Cultures: Role of diversity within and among cultures. Aspects of culture such as belief systems, religious faith, or political ideas as influences on other parts of a culture such as its institutions or literature, music, and art.
- Theme 10: Global Connections and Exchange: Past, current, and likely future global interactions and connections. Cultural diffusion, the spread of ideas, beliefs, technology, and goods. Role of technology. Benefits/consequences of global interdependence (social, political, economic). Causes of and patterns of migration of people. Tension between national interests and global priorities.

Social Studies Practices, Gathering, Using, and Interpreting Evidence, Grades 5–8:

- Descriptor 2: Identify, describe, and evaluate evidence about events from diverse sources (including written documents, works of art, photographs, charts and graphs, artifacts, oral traditions, and other primary and secondary sources)
- Descriptor 3: Analyze evidence in terms of content, authorship, point of view, purpose, and format; identify bias; explain the role of bias and audience in presenting arguments or evidence

Optional: Experts, Fieldwork, and Service

Experts:

- Invite recent immigrants to the United States who could speak about the experience of coming to a new country and fitting into a new culture.

Fieldwork:

- Arrange for a visit to a local Chinatown, so that students can compare the buildings and architecture to those outside Chinatown.
- Arrange for a visit to a flight/aviation museum or exhibit, so that students can learn more about early flying machines like those described in Dragonwings.
- Arrange for a visit to a museum or exhibit about earthquakes, so that students can learn more about earthquakes and the aftermath.

Optional: Extensions

- A study of the history of a local Chinatown.
- A study of the history of flight.

Preparation and Materials

This unit includes a number of routines that involve stand-alone documents.

In Lessons 1–10, students frequently read a section of the novel Dragonwings for homework. Once the routine is fully implemented (starting in Lesson 1), students will answer a point-of-view focus question using evidence from the text each night:

1. Reading Calendar

- Students read Dragonwings for homework for Lessons 1–10. Each night, they read either a chapter or part of a chapter.
- Consider providing a reading calendar to help students, teachers, and families understand what is due and when. See stand-alone document.

2. Structured Notes

Students will do a “first read” of several chapters of Dragonwings each night. The structured notes record their thinking about a point-of-view focus question specific to that chapter as they do this initial read. Structured notes are organized by chapter and require students to read the chapter, answer the point-of-view focus question for each chapter, and record evidence from the chapter to support their answers to the questions.

The calendar below shows what is due on each day.

You may modify this document to include dates instead of lessons.
