Mid-Unit 2 Assessment: Text-Dependent and Short Answer Questions: Excerpts from "A Limited Supply"

A Limited Supply

Canada's north has an abundance of natural resources. Until recently these resources have been largely untouched. As resources are being used up in the south, oil and gas, mining, and forestry industries are moving northward. Resource industries bring needed jobs to people in the north, but they also have environmental consequences. As more areas of the north are opened up for resource extraction, more roads are needed for transportation. Roads disturb the land and wildlife habitats and also act as a barrier to migrating animals.

Industry

- Oil and Gas—Oil and gas resources have been discovered throughout the north. Exploration for these resources and their extraction disrupts the land. Pipelines have to be built to transport the oil to refineries. Sometimes pipelines are thousands of kilometers long. Pipelines disrupt migrating animals such as the caribou. There is also the possibility for oil and gas extraction in the Arctic Ocean. This would lead to a disruption of the marine environment and the possibility of oil spills.
- Mining—Metallic ores including iron, copper, lead, zinc, gold, and silver are mined in the Arctic, as well as limestone, diamonds, and uranium. Mining disrupts the land and pollutes the water with lead and mercury. Mines also use a lot of energy.
- Forestry—In the southern part of the Arctic, forestry takes place in the Boreal forest. Trees are cut down to create pulp, paper, and wood products. Once Boreal forests are cut down, it takes a long time for them to regenerate because of the harsh growing conditions.

1. Why are some of the natural resource industries moving to the northern parts of Canada? Support your answer with a quote from the text. (RI.5.1)

Because resources are being used up in the south. "As resources are being used up in the south, oil and gas, mining, and forestry industries are moving northward."

2. What is good about resource industries moving north? Support your answer with a quote from the text. (RI.5.1)

They provide jobs for people in the North. "Resource industries bring needed jobs to people in the north ..."

3. What are the negative consequences of resource industries moving north? Support your response with a quote from the text. (RI.5.1)

They require more roads, and more roads disturb wildlife. "As more areas of the north are opened up for resource extraction, more roads are needed for transportation. Roads disturb the land and wildlife habitats and also act as a barrier to migrating animals."

- 4. How do the oil and gas industry and the forestry industry modify the physical environment? Use quotes from the text in your answer.
  - a. Oil and gas industry:

They need pipelines, and building pipelines affects migrating wildlife. They could also disrupt the ocean. "Pipelines disrupt migrating animals such as the caribou. There is also the possibility for oil and gas extraction in the Arctic Ocean. This would lead to a disruption of the marine environment and the possibility of oil spills."

b. Forestry industry:

It takes a long time for trees to grow again once they have been cut down. "Once Boreal forests are cut down, it takes a long time for them to regenerate because of the harsh growing conditions."
